INCOMING GRADE 6 SUMMER READING LIST

The following reading assignments were chosen for sixth graders to encourage recreational reading this summer while still requiring students to think about important themes. It is critical that you read this page very carefully in order to understand all that is expected of you over the summer. I am looking to see that our incoming sixth grade students are capable of reading a novel independently, comprehending what they read, and discussing themes and topics with age-appropriate insight and thoughtfulness.

Students Entering Grade 6 are required to:

1. Read the novel The Bronze Bow by Elizabeth George Speare.

While reading The Bronze Bow please record each chapter in your summer reading journal (linked here). Each journal should be printed and must include the following details: Development of characters, setting, theme and Biblical connections. All journals will be turned in to the teacher on the first day of school.

2. Choose a second book to read from the following list and/or series:

Lizzie Bright and the Buckminster Boy By: Gary D. Schmidt

The Traitors' Gate By: Avi

Hoot By: Carl Hiassen

Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry By: Mildred D. Taylor

The Hatchet Series By: Gary Paulson

The Ranger's Apprentice by John Flanagan

Guns for General Washington by Seymour Reit;

Johnny Tremain by Esther Forbes

My Brother Sam is Dead by James Lincoln Collier

The Good Dog By: Avi

Students should keep notes on the book they choose. Students' comprehension of the assigned novel will be assessed by means of curriculum projects and discussions during the first month of school.
