Mathematics Department Chair

Covenant Christian Academy is seeking a qualified secondary school professional for a position as an Upper School (grades 7-12) Mathematics Department Chair and teacher for the 2021-2022 school year. Department Chair responsibilities include leading a department through a curriculum alignment project and monitoring both curriculum development and mathematics instruction. Teaching responsibilities could include multiple high school level courses ranging from Algebra I to AP Calculus, depending on expertise and experience.

Qualified candidates will have a Bachelor's degree in a related field, with preference given to candidates with a Master's degree, five or more years of classroom teaching experience, experience as a department chair and/or experience teaching in a Classical school. Relevant experience with Computer Science and/or Robotics should be also be noted in a candidate's application.

Ideally, the applicant joins learning and faith in a natural way, communicates well with parents, embraces the classical model of liberal arts education, and loves helping all students reach high standards. A CCA teacher also commits to interacting with students outside of the classroom in co-curricular activities in order to nurture faith and character.

A full-time Upper School position includes, but is not limited to, the following responsibilities:

- Lead department in both teaching and learning
- Plan and teach math courses as assigned
- Collaborate with other math and science teachers to assure vertical alignment, consistent grading standards, and to work on the newly adopted initiative for the advancement of math and science at CCA.
- Be available during set hours each week to work with students individually or in small groups for extra help.
- Be available for weekly Upper School faculty meetings.
- Serve as an advisor to a group of students in grades 9-12. This includes a weekly meeting with the whole group and a willingness to serve as an advocate for these students as needed.
- Attend a limited number of specified school events as representative of the CCA Upper School faculty, including Back to School Night, Admissions Events and other community events.
- Be willing to sign CCA's Statement of Faith and Core Values. Must maintain the highest Christian virtue and personal decorum, serving as a Christian role model and mentor both in and out of school, to students, parents, fellow faculty members and employees in judgment, dignity, respect, and Christian living.

The Department Chair position has flexibility in terms of being part or full time; a full time position has benefits. Supplemental income from after-school programs and/or individual tutoring may be available.

Contract runs: Start date is flexible - runs through June 2022; teaching is on a 10 month cycle.

Compensation: Commensurate with experience

Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest, professional resume, Christian faith statement, and philosophy of Christian education summary to:
